

"Educating the Whole Person to Live in Jesus Christ."

Pleasanton, Texas

Thanksgiving Week

Thank you Mrs. Lawrence and our fifth grade class for a truly wonderful Veterans Day prayer service. I know our visiting Veterans felt loved and appreciated for their service to our great country. Our Angels were respectful and welcoming to these special visitors on campus.

We are excited to host our Thanksgiving luncheon in the parish hall Wednesday at 11 am catered by Bill Miller. Do not forget your ticket(s) for the purchased plates. We want everyone who prepaid for a meal to receive one. Mrs. Herrera's guitar group will perform and our Angel Cheerleaders will showcase their competition cheer and dance routine. Hope to see you there.

Enjoy a blessed week!

-Tammy Ducote, Principal

Campus News

- The Veterans Day prayer service was amazing. The pride for their country and thankfulness and respect to our Veterans was clearly shown by our students and staff.
- Fourth grade finally received the Respectacles this week. I challenged them to go for two in a row!!

Teacher Spotlight

Mrs. Evans is our PreK-3 teacher and has been working at Our Lady of Grace for seven and a half years. She is always finding new and exciting ways to engage our littlest Angels in learning. She is also the Cheer Coach volunteering her time and efforts to train and guide our Angel Cheerleaders.

"I am so grateful and blessed to be a part of Our Lady of Grace for giving me the opportunity to be a child's first teacher, to give them a place to learn and grow in Jesus' name!" - Mrs. Evans
